

our democracy depends on media. it must be fair and clear and not owned by one source. what is happening now is very unfortunate and very scary as far as true constitutional rights is concerned. thank you